A NOTE FOR YOU

Dear LinkedIn Creator,

The Hooks you have in front of you are powerful, to say the least.

In a world full of noise, global competition, and overwhelmed prospects, grabbing attention seems to be harder than ever. As we're writing this, over two million posts are getting ready to be published on LinkedIn today. By the time you read it, we suppose the number will be fairly bigger.

The thing is, each and every one of the two million wants the same outcome as you do – getting noticed. It leaves us with one question in mind – is there a way to stand out, stop the scroll, and ultimately be the one who triggers a response?

There is.

Nine times out of ten, every underperforming post has a bad Hook Sentence.

You can write the best post in the world, but if you can't hook your audience into clicking on "see more", then they'll never read what your post was all about. That means that all of your efforts have gone in vain. Most LinkedIn posts have such weak Hook Sentences, that they end up being completely ignored, skipped, and long-forgotten.

Now, this is exactly where you grab the chance.

What you now hold in your hands is the easiest way to put the skills of Professional Copywriters into your posts, and grab your target market's attention faster than any competitor out there.

The only thing you need to do is to "copy-paste" the Hooks that have been proven to work, generating millions of views, thousands of likes & comments, and bringing us all the high-ticket clients on LinkedIn.

The best part is – you'll never again have to think about how to frame that harrowing first sentence. You can now start your posts in confidence, before ever thinking of giving up.

Here's something we'd like you to know...

We want you to accomplish something way better than being noticed on this platform, and that is – being recognised and remembered.

We want you to make the opportunities come to you, instead of chasing them.

We want you to do it in less time than it took us.

And ultimately, we want you to surpass our accomplishments, and take this knowledge even further.

Don't forget to enjoy the journey itself, cause it's truly amazing.

We'll see you at the top!

All the best,

Dina & Stevan,

Not bad, innit?

The best thing is - now you can do it too.

Yeah, you really can. We believe in you.

So, here's what to do next:

Start creating TODAY.

Reading this, nodding along, and then putting it into your "to-do" folder won't get you far. So let's do something about it. Write your first post today using these templates, then do the same tomorrow. Six months from now, you'll be surprised how far you've come.

Here's to Your success.

All the best,
Dina & Stevan
